

As a retired journalism professor I deplore Sinclair's decision to air "Stolen Honor" as a "news" program when it doesn't fit any definition of news. You should air it as an opinion piece and let your viewers know it is not news, but opinion. If aired, your license to use the public airwaves should be denied.